Why write?

I DON'T WANT TO TALK
ABOUT MY STRESS
I JUST WANT TO
WRITE
ABOUT IT

WHAT'S YOUR STORY?

Learn about yourself

Am I tourist?

Tourist	Pilgrim
Follow the modern trends of traveling	Is in the moment
Cultural and architectural value	Expressing love for Allah
Wants to be entertained	Wants to be forgiven

Which travel agent should I select?

- Who is the scholar leading the group?
- How many years experience?
- Reviews for the travel agent?
- Price

Before You Travel

- Photocopy of all your official documents. Make extra copies of passports and photos.
- Keep both your national currency as well as Saudi Riyals in your wallet.
- Have your agent check in for all the bookings, hotels, foods, agreements beforehand.
- Pre-pay your monthly bills so you don't fall behind simply because you'll be out of the country.

Before you travel

- Re-learn the basics of Islam: Those going for Hajj should make sure that they are performing Wudhu, Ghusl, Salah and funeral prayers perfectly.
- 72 year old lady didn't know the farā'id of ghusl story
- Familiarize yourself with the Umrah plan; don't rely on on the travel guide for every du'a.
- Learn common Arabic vocabulary and phrases needed during Hajj so that it eases communication.
- (Funny Dr. Wheelchair Sa'i story)

Disclaimer: Speak with a medical professional about what supplement/medicine is right for you and what to pack.

- Apply Waxelene to the insides of the thighs before exercising or walking to effectively help protect against chafing

No foreign transaction fee

The ease of Umrah has come at a cost

Alternatives to watching movies

- Write in your journal
- Write list of duas you want to say when you're in front of the Ka'bah
- Finish at least one completion of the Qur'an
- Read the historical landmarks of Makkah and Madinah
- Read the material Imam Azfar will post on the WhatsApp group

Some pain is good?

lover of the Truth, who had set off from northern India on foot, and passed through Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, and Jerusalem, finally reaching Arabia. He refused the King's offer of a return plane ticket and took the same road back home.

Publicly proclaim the (duty of) Pilgrimage for all humankind, that they come to you on foot and on lean camels, coming from every far-away point. (Hajj 22:27)
